JEFFREY SANOW

With 35 years of experience navigating the complexities of global intelligence and security, Jeffrey S. Sanow is a distinguished authority on international operations, risk management, and strategic leadership. A former Senior Intelligence Officer in the National Clandestine Service of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), Jeffrey has a wealth of knowledge and firsthand experience in some of the world's most challenging environments.

Throughout his illustrious career, Jeffrey has directed high-stakes operations across South Asia, Southeast Asia, the eastern Mediterranean, and the Middle East. His work has been instrumental in shaping the security landscape for key U.S. missions abroad, including his leadership role in directing security efforts for the U.S. Embassy in Pakistan and serving as the General Manager of one of the largest security companies in Uganda.

Since retiring from the CIA, Jeffrey has dedicated himself to sharing his expertise as a mentor, instructor, and public speaker. His presentations are a masterclass in resilience, adaptability, and the art of making critical decisions under pressure. Whether he's speaking on the intricacies of global intelligence, the nuances of cross-cultural leadership, insights into biblically significant principals, or the strategic importance of security in today's volatile world, Jeffrey captivates audiences with his compelling stories and actionable insights.

Jeffrey's engaging style and profound understanding of global dynamics make him a sought-after speaker for organizations looking to enhance their leadership capabilities, strengthen their security strategies, and gain a deeper understanding of international affairs.
