BIO

Deep Roy is an internationally recognized actor, performer, and movement artist with a career spanning nearly five decades across film, television, and stage. Born in Nairobi, Kenya to Indian parents, he is known for a distinctive screen presence rooted in versatility and physical performance.

HIGHLIGHTS

He made his professional screen acting debut in 1976 on The New Avengers and has become widely known for roles across major franchises including Star Wars, Star Trek, Planet of the Apes, and Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. His rare blend of acting, voice work, puppeteering, and stunt performance brings heart, humor, and humanity to imaginative, otherworldly characters.
